Corporate Talk Series

A Perspective on Global Banking

By Mr. Ankur Jain, Vice President, Citi India

On 17th June, 2022

As part of series of corporate interactions to familiarize students with contemporary thinking in the field of Management, a talk on 'Perspectives on global Banking' was organized by IBS, Jaipur on 17 th June, 2022 in the Seminar Hall of the University. The guest speaker to grace the occasion was Mr. Ankur Jain, Vice President at the Citi Bank, India. The well attended session was graced by the presence of Dr. Shweta Jain, Dean IBS, faculty members and students comprising the MBA I and II year. The guest was welcomed and introduced to the audience by Ms. Aishwarya Rajwani, Secretary of the Students' Council of IBS.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Jain elaborated on the role and structure of banking in India. He explained the multi pronged approach of global banks to cover various verticals like retail and corporate banking, investment banking and advisory services for their customers at various global locations. He shared that this approach places global banks in a unique position to offer banking and advisory services to MNC clients which require such financial intermediation at multiple locations. Speaking on banking, he also highlighted the trends in banking and various challenges being faced by the industry such as digital banking and the risk of fraud and privacy concerns, geopolitical and macro-economic head winds, regulatory changes and over-arching dominance of technology in all aspects of banking. He said, more and more banks resemble tech companies since a lot of technology development is leading the evolution of banking at all levels.

Mr. Jain then answered questions presented by eager students ranging from careers, key skills required, growth opportunities and role of banking in economic development – especially in rural areas. To conclude, vote of thanks to the speaker was presented by Mr. Tathagat Behra, Vice President of the Students' Council, IBS.
