February 16, 2024

ICFAI School of Liberal Arts (ISLA), The ICFAI University, Jaipur organised “Viksit Bharat Utsav” event on February 16, 2024. The celebration resonated with the vision of the Government of India for a developed nation. Viksit Bharat@2047 is the vision of the Government of India to make India a developed nation by 2047, the 100th year of its independence. The vision encompasses various aspects of development, including economic growth, social progress, environmental sustainability, and good governance.

The dignitaries invited and present on this occasion were Sh. Ajay Aswal, R.A.S, Prof. (Dr.) H P Singh, VSM, Hon'ble President, The ICFAI University, Jaipur and Prof. (Dr.) Nesamoorthy, Registrar, The ICFAI University, Jaipur. Other dignitaries in attendance were Dr. Harish Kumar Verma, HoD, ILS, Dr. Minal Sharma, HoD, ISLA and faculty members of the university. Sh. Ajay Aswal, R.A.S was invited as the guest speaker on this occasion. In his address, he outlined the vision of the Honourable Prime Minister Sh. Narendra Modi regarding making Bharat "viksit" and "sashakt" and emphasised on the significance of the "Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra". He called for the youth to actively work towards this mission and talked about the holistic development of the country, economic growth, good governance, realisation of a sense of collective duty and the need to adopt a flexible and self-corrective approach from time to time. Prof. (Dr.) H P Singh, VSM addressed the gathering encouraging the youth of the university to contribute to the vision of Viksit Bharat and exhorted them for practical application of the address given by Sh. Ajay Aswal.

The department also organised various Intra University competitions on this day. THE YOUTH OF THE UNIVERSITY: FEEDBACK

I attended the “Viksit Bharat Utsav” event organised by the ICFAI School of Liberal Arts on February 16, 2024 in which a lecture was delivered by Sh. Ajay Aswal. It proved extremely useful as I got to know about why this vision is being promoted as “Viksit Bharat” rather than “Developed India” and what will make India developed by 2047. I also came to know about how people like us can contribute in making India developed by 2047.

-Shivani Bagwal (B.A. Political Science II Year Student)

Attending “Viksit Bharat Utsav” event at my college was an enriching experience. The speaker Sh. Ajay Aswal exuded a captivating aura, drawing everyone into their insightful discourse. Through compelling comparisons, he skilfully shared valuable experience, leaving an indelible impact on my perspective.

-Rajat Pareek (B.Tech I Year Student)

Our University had organised an expert lecture and a declamation, essay writing and poster making competition on February 16, 2024 on theme “ViksitBharat@2024”. I enjoyed taking part in the competitions, expressing my views and listening to others views on the same.

-Arathi A.R. (B.A. Psychology I Year Student)

Our university’s “Viksit Bharat Utsav” event, graced by Sh. Ajay Aswal, R.A.S. Officer was an enlightening experience. The officer shared insights on “Viksit Bharat”, urging us to contribute to India’s development. The officer shed light on the key pillars of development encompassing education, infrastructure, healthcare, and technology. We gained insights on into the challenges and opportunities on the path to a developed India and the role each of us can play in driving progress and prosperity. We left with renewed commitment and gratitude for the opportunity.

-Tarun Khandelwal (BCA General II Year Student)

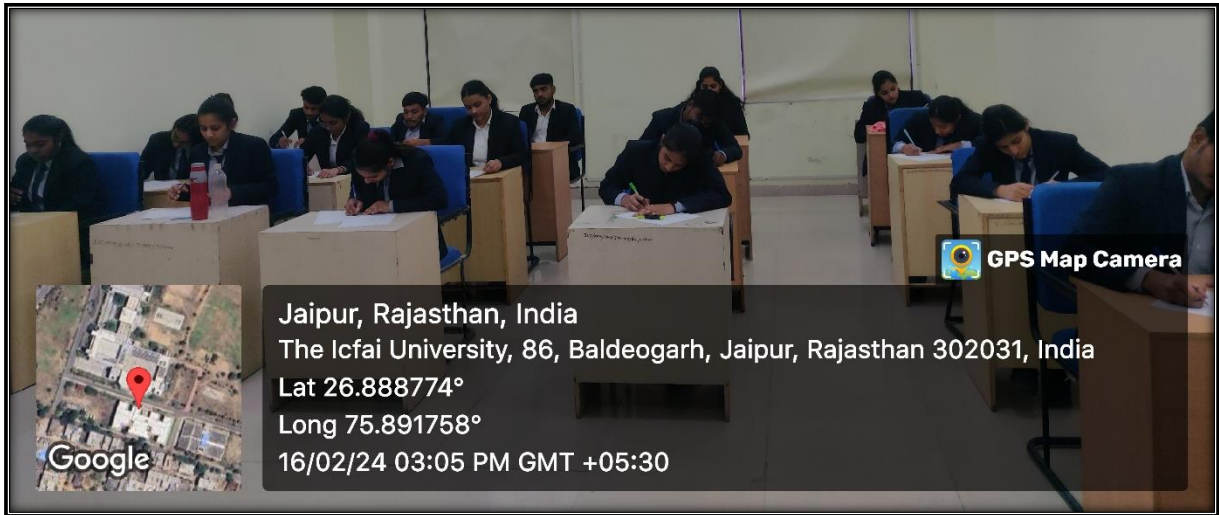

Officer Ajay Aswal’s presentation at the “Viksit Bharat Utsav” was exceptional. He skilfully combined insightful content with personal experiences, creating a talk that was both informative and relatable. By incorporating his own encounters, sir made complex topics more accessible and left a lasting impact on the audience.
