Date: 25th September 2025

Venue: Seminar Hall No. 16

Organized by: ICFAI School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, The ICFAI University, Jaipur

Objective:

The World Pharmacist Day is celebrated every year to highlight the pivotal role of pharmacists in improving global health through responsible and rationalize use of medicines and patient care. The celebration at ICFAI School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, The ICFAI University, Jaipur aimed to honor this noble profession, inspire students to take pride in their role as future pharmacists, and provide them with a platform to showcase their creativity and talent. On this occasion multiple academic and cultural activities were carried out by the school.

The celebration commenced with the arrival and welcome of dignitaries, followed by the traditional lighting of the lamp and Saraswati Pooja. A sapling was presented to the Guest of Honour, Prof. (Dr.) R. Nesamoorthy, Registrar, The ICFAI University, Jaipur, by Prof. Dr. S. K. Singh, Faculty as a symbol of respect and growth.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) G. N. Sharma, Principal, ICFAI School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, who extended warm greetings to the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. In his address, he highlighted the significance of World Pharmacist Day and encouraged students to uphold the values of the profession.

The Guest of Honour, Prof. (Dr.) R. Nesamoorthy, addressed the gathering with motivating words, appreciating the efforts of the ICFAI School of Pharmaceutical Sciences and emphasizing the essential contribution of pharmacists to healthcare and society.

The formal session was further enriched with a soulful Saraswati Vandana in the form of dance presented by Kajal Saini. Thereafter, the cultural program unfolded with enthusiastic student participation, including melodious singing by Amir and Utkarsh Sharma, graceful dance performances by Kajal Saini, Aman Jangid, Riddhi Sharma, and Astha Sharma, and a skit presented by students of B. Pharm-III Sem. A heartfelt poem on pharmacists was also recited by Dr. Lokesh Kaushik, Assistant Professor, ISPS, adding a literary touch to the celebration.

The Guest of Honour, Prof. (Dr.) R. Nesamoorthy, was felicitated in recognition of his gracious presence. The proceedings concluded with a sincere Vote of Thanks, acknowledging the efforts of faculty, students, and coordinators in making the event successful.

Following the cultural program, refreshments were served. In the afternoon, a Poster Presentation was organized at the Pharmacy Block, where students showcased their creativity and academic knowledge on pharmacy-related themes. The program ended with the rendition of the National Anthem, filling the hall with a sense of pride and patriotism. On this occasion, Prof (Dr) H P Singh, VSM, Hon'ble President of The ICFAI University, Jaipur, conveyed his wishes and blessings to all faculty, staff members, and students through the Principal, as he was unable to join the program due to other commitments.

Outcome:

The World Pharmacist Day celebration at Seminar Hall No. 16 was a grand success. The presence of dignitaries including Prof. Dr. R. Nesamorthy, Registrar of The ICFAI University, Jaipur, and Prof. Dr. G. N. Sharma, Principal, Pharmacy, added great value to the occasion. The cultural activities, combined with the academic poster presentation, created a perfect blend of creativity, learning, and inspiration.

The event instilled pride among students in their profession and motivated them to contribute responsibly to patient care and the healthcare sector. It was a true reflection of joy, gratitude, and professional commitment.
