The Literati Club of the ICFAI School of Liberal Arts organised a session on the topic “Study Abroad 2026: Your Global Education Roadmap” on January 27, 2026. The session aimed to guide students aspiring to pursue higher education overseas by providing comprehensive insights into global academic opportunities, application processes, and emerging trends for 2026 admissions. The session was coordinated by Dr Sugandha Verma, Assistant Professor and Coordinator, Literati Club, ISLA.

The distinguished speakers for the session were Mr. Shariq Khan, General Manager at Gradding, and Mr. Yash Pareek, Business Development Manager at Gradding. Both speakers brought valuable industry experience and practical knowledge regarding international admissions and student mobility trends.

Objective: The primary objectives of the session were:

- To provide students with a structured roadmap for studying abroad in 2026.
- To familiarise students with popular study destinations and emerging global education trends.
- To explain the application process, including documentation, timelines, and financial planning.
- To guide students on scholarship opportunities, visa procedures, and career prospects after graduation.

- To address common myths and concerns related to international education.

Key Highlights of the Session

Mr. Shariq Khan began the session by discussing the growing demand for global education and the importance of early planning. He emphasised selecting the right course and country based on academic goals, budget, and long-term career aspirations. Mr Khan outlined major study destinations such as the USA, UK, Canada, Australia, and European countries, highlighting their academic strengths and post-study work opportunities. He further elaborated on the application timelines and admission cycles for 2026, required standardized tests and English proficiency exams, Statement of Purpose (SOP) and Letter of Recommendation (LOR) preparation, scholarship and financial aid options, visa documentation and interview preparation. He also shared practical tips on building strong student profiles through internships, extracurricular activities, and research exposure. An interactive Q&A session followed, where students clarified doubts related to course selection, budget planning, accommodation, and job opportunities abroad. Mr. Yash Pareek assisted in facilitating the discussion and addressing logistical queries from participants.

Outcomes of the Session

The session resulted in the following key outcomes:

- Students gained clarity on the step-by-step process for studying abroad in 2026.
- Participants developed a better understanding of country-specific admission requirements and career pathways.
- Increased awareness about scholarships, financial planning, and visa procedures.
- Students felt more confident and motivated to begin early preparation for global education opportunities.
- Strengthened industry-academia interaction through expert guidance.
