Introduction

The Industry Relations Cell of the ICFAI School of Liberal Arts, The ICFAI University, Jaipur organized an Expert Talk on Employability Skills and Training on 11th February 2026. The session aimed to equip students with essential professional and employability skills required in the contemporary job market. The event witnessed the participation of 76 students and 6 faculty members, demonstrating strong academic and professional interest among participants.

Event Overview

The session commenced with a welcome address highlighting the importance of employability skills, industry exposure, and practical training in enhancing students' career prospects. The resource persons were formally introduced, and the objectives of the session were explained to the participants.

Mr. Saurabh Singh shared insights into communication skills, voice modulation, confidence building, and personal branding, emphasizing their role in professional success. Mr. Vishal Singh Bhatia discussed digital marketing, web design, business growth strategies, and the importance of adaptability and continuous learning in the evolving job market.

Key Areas Covered

The expert talk covered the following key themes:

- Importance of employability skills in career development
- Communication and presentation skills
- Personal branding and professional etiquette
- Digital skills and industry requirements
- Role of technology in business growth
- Career opportunities in digital marketing and creative industries
- Importance of lifelong learning and skill enhancement

Interaction and Question–Answer Session

An interactive question–answer session followed the lectures, where students actively engaged with the speakers. Students raised queries related to career opportunities, skill development, industry expectations, and practical training pathways. The speakers provided practical guidance and real-life examples, motivating students to focus on skill-based learning and professional growth.

Feedback Summary

The feedback received from participating students was highly positive. Most respondents rated the session content, speaker effectiveness, clarity of explanations, and relevance of the topic as Excellent to Very Good, indicating strong satisfaction with the quality and delivery of the expert talk. Students reported a significant enhancement in their understanding of employability skills after attending the session, with many indicating improved knowledge compared to their prior awareness. Overall, the feedback reflects that the session was engaging, informative, and highly beneficial for academic and professional enrichment.
