

THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, JAIPUR
NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME
REPORT ON TREE PLANTATION DRIVE

July 18, 2025

Objective: The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of ICFAI University, Jaipur, organized a Tree Plantation Drive on July 18, 2025, with the objective of promoting environmental awareness and contributing to a greener and cleaner campus.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from the President of the University, Prof. (Dr.) H. P. Singh, VSM, along with heads of various departments, faculty members, staff, and NSS volunteers. The drive began with a brief address by the President, who highlighted the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and urged everyone to take active responsibility for environmental conservation.

Under the guidance of the faculty coordinators and NSS Programme Officer, volunteers planted a variety of saplings around the campus premises. Each volunteer took a pledge to nurture the planted saplings and ensure their proper growth.

The collective effort of the NSS volunteers and faculty members turned the event into a successful and inspiring initiative, reinforcing the message that “Planting a tree is planting hope for the future.”

Outcomes:

1. Around 100 saplings were planted within the university campus, contributing to increased green cover.
2. The activity enhanced environmental awareness and strengthened the spirit of volunteerism among students.
3. The initiative fostered a sense of collective responsibility towards sustainability and conservation.
