

Celebrate The National Girl Child Day
The UBA Cell,
The ICFAI University, Jaipur

Date of Event: 28 January 2026	Location: Govt. Primary School, Vijayapura Village
Time: 2:00 PM to 3:30 PM	Type of Event : Celebrating National Girl Child Day

1. Objective:

- To create awareness among school children regarding the concept of Good Touch and Bad Touch.
- To educate students in a safe, simple, and child-friendly manner.
- To promote learning through interactive and fun-based activities.
- To encourage confidence, safety awareness, and moral understanding among children.

2. Detailed Report: - As part of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) outreach activities, the UBA Cell of ICFAI Law School, The ICFAI University, Jaipur organized an awareness session at Govt. Primary School, Vijayapura Village

The session commenced with a brief introduction explaining the purpose of the visit and the importance of awareness among children. This was followed by a PowerPoint presentation on the topic “Good Touch and Bad Touch”, which was presented by a UBA member using a projector. The presentation was explained in a simple and child-friendly manner to ensure better understanding among students.

After the awareness session, the program moved towards an engaging and enjoyable segment. Various interactive games were organized for different groups of students; including the Identify the Color Game, Guess the Name from Alphabet Game, and Months Name Game. The children participated enthusiastically, and winners were rewarded with prizes to motivate and encourage them.

Further, educational rhyme videos were shown on the projector, making the learning process more interesting and joyful for the students. At the end of the session, gifts were distributed to all the children as a token of love and encouragement.

Towards the conclusion of the program, Teacher of the school was honored with a sapling as a symbol of respect and gratitude. The event concluded with group photographs taken with the members of the UBA Cell and the school children.

The event was organized under the kind guidance of Hon'ble President Prof Dr H P Singh VSM, ICFAI University, Jaipur. Dr. Pratima Soni, Associate Dean & UBA PI Coordinator along with Mr. Ashish Acharya faculty member and student volunteers ensured the smooth conduct of the activity.

3. Participants:

1. Around 50 Primary Classes Students and two school teachers
2. UBA members and volunteers from ICFAI University.

4. Time: 2:00 PM to 3:30 PM

5. Activities Conducted:

- Awareness Session On Good Touch and Bad Touch through PPT presentation
- Interactive games for students
- Distribution of prizes to game winners
- Screening of educational rhyme videos
- Distribution of gifts to all children
- Honoring of the Chief Teacher with a sapling
- Group photographs

6. Outcomes of the Activity

- Increased awareness among children regarding personal safety.
- Enhanced understanding through visual and interactive learning methods.
- Improved student engagement and confidence.
- Strengthened connection between the university and the local school community.
- Created a joyful and educational environment for children.

7. Conclusion

The event proved to be informative, engaging, and impactful for the school children. Through interactive learning, games, and visual aids, the students were able to understand important concepts related to personal safety in an enjoyable manner. The program successfully reflected the commitment of the UBA Cell towards community development and child welfare. The event concluded on a positive note with smiles, learning, and meaningful interaction.

Glimpses:

Report Submitted By-
The UBA Cell, The ICFAI University, Jaipur.