

Report on Sumel Village Human Rights Survey Organised by Centre for Human Rights and Gender Justice

Date of Event: 21 st January, 2026	Location: Sumel Village- Gram Panchayat Area
Time: 11:45 A.M. to 1:15 P.M.	Type of Event: Basic Human Rights Awareness and Survey

Objectives of the Survey and Visit

- To assess the level of awareness of basic human rights among village residents
This objective focuses on understanding whether people know about fundamental rights such as the right to equality, education, health, livelihood, and protection from discrimination and exploitation.
- To identify common human rights issues and violations faced by villagers in daily life
The survey aims to document problems such as domestic violence, child labour, caste-based discrimination, denial of wages, access to government schemes, and issues related to women, children, and elderly persons.
- To examine access to justice and awareness of legal remedies and government welfare schemes
This objective seeks to understand whether villagers know where to seek help such as legal aid services, police, courts, Panchayats, or NGOs and whether government schemes meant for their welfare are actually reaching them.
- To recommend measures for strengthening human rights protection at the village level
Based on survey findings, this objective aims to suggest legal awareness programs, legal aid camps, policy interventions, and community participation to improve the protection and realization of human rights.

Transaction of Event

The Centre for Human Rights and Gender Justice, ICFAI Law School performed a door to door survey and human rights awareness campaign after receiving recommendations and suggestions by Hon'ble President Sir, Prof Dr H P Singh VSM Sir and time to time guidance by Advisor of the Centre, Dr Harish Kumar Verma Sir, Dean, ICFAI Law School, Jaipur. There were total of 52 students from B.A.LL. B-IV Semester involved in this activity along with 2 student members form Centre itself. Mr. Ratnesh Pandey and Mr. Ashish Acharya were assigned to accommodate students for guiding this survey and reached with survey team to Sumel Village at 12:00 Noon and completed survey at 1:30 P.M. and back to the campus by 1:50 P.M.

Outcomes of the Activity:

- Created mass awareness about the legal and social implications of instances of Human Rights Violations.
- Performed Survey on different age groups people form children to senior citizens.
- Enhanced student involvement in community-oriented Human Rights education.
- Promoted the basic human rights by reaching door to door among village homes.

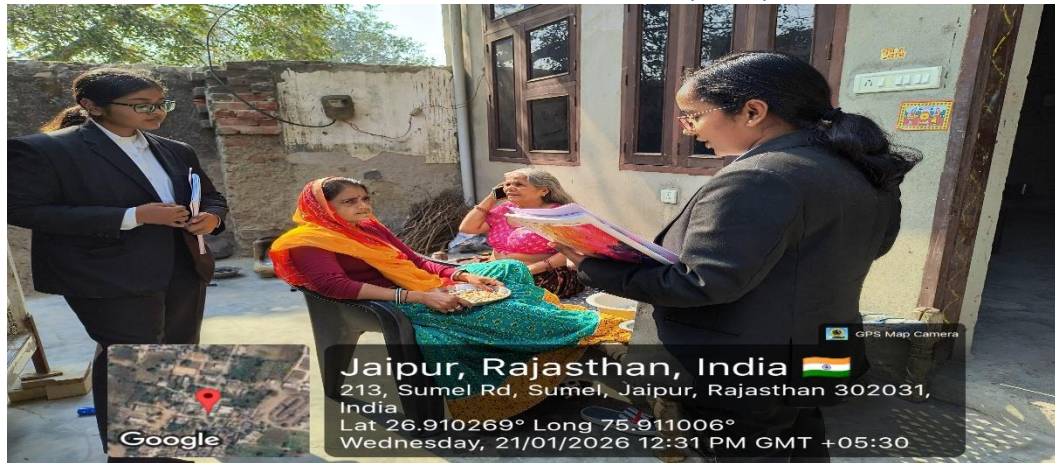

6. Conclusion:

This visit to Sumel Village and Human Rights Survey proved to be a meaningful and impactful awareness initiative, effectively communicating the importance of Human Rights literacy and responsible social behaviour. The event also demonstrated the commitment of ICFAI Law School and its students towards promoting justice, equality, and legal awareness in society.

Centre for Human Rights and Gender Justice, ICFAI Law School, The ICFAI University, Jaipur extended gratitude to our guiding path Prof Dr H P Singh VSM, Hon'ble President, The ICFAI University, Jaipur, for his continuous motivation and support.

Glimpses of the Event

Malpura Chaur, Rajasthan, India
Ww76+2qc, Sumel, Malpura Chaur, Rajasthan 302031,
India
Lat 26.912724° Long 75.912136°
Wednesday, 21/01/2026 12:13 PM GMT +05:30

Report Submitted By:

Centre for Human Rights and Gender Justice

ICFAI Law School, The ICFAI University, Jaipur.

Dr. Harish Kumar Verma
Advisor, Centre for Human Rights and Gender Justice

Mr. Ratnesh Pandey
Mr. Vijay
Mr. Ashish Acharya
Members, Centre for Human Rights and Gender Justice