Event- Sur-Sangram: The Battle of melodies(Rang-Manch)

Date- 24 october,2024

Time- 03:00 PM - 05:00 PM

The much-anticipated music competition, Sur Sangram: The Battle of Melodies, was held with enthusiasm and high spirits. This Antakshari-style contest brought together music lovers to compete in rounds that tested their knowledge, recall, and musical abilities.

Elimination Round: The event began with an Elimination Round where ten teams entered the stage with hopes to advance to the main rounds. The competition was fierce, with each team bringing its best efforts, but only four teams could make it through.

In the Elimination Round of Sur Sangram: The Battle of Melodies, participants faced a unique challenge. Each team selected a word, and their task was to sing as many songs as possible that featured this word in the lyrics. The teams had a time limit and had to take turns singing different songs with the chosen word, showcasing both their quick thinking and depth of musical knowledge.

This round was not only a test of memory but also an exciting way to bring popular words from Hindi songs into focus. Teams sang enthusiastically, attempting to outlast each other by recalling more songs with the same word. The teams with the highest number of songs performed were selected to advance, adding an intense and fun dynamic to the opening of the competition.

Round 1: Guess the Song with Image: In this round, participants were shown images from iconic Hindi movie songs. The teams had to guess the song title from these visual cues. The round was an exciting test of memory and association, as participants recalled familiar songs and scenes.

Round 2: Guess the Song with English Lyrics: The second round added a unique twist where the teams were presented with English-translated lyrics of popular Hindi songs. Participants needed to identify the Hindi song based on these translations, challenging their lyrical knowledge and understanding of Hindi classics.

Round 3: Identify the Singer and Sing Another Song The final and most challenging round involved identifying a singer based on a song that was played. Participants had to identify the artist and then perform a different song by that singer. This round showcased their familiarity with playback singers and brought their vocal talents to the fore.

Winning Team: Sangeet Vibes After a close and exhilarating competition, Team Sangeet Vibes emerged as the champions of Sur Sangram. The team members Nirupaksh Mishra, Nikhar Mittal, Parth Gupta, Palak Pandey impressed everyone with their musical knowledge, quick thinking, and passion for Bollywood melodies. Their outstanding performance across all rounds secured their well-deserved victory.

Conclusion: The event was a celebration of Hindi music and lyrical artistry, highlighting the participants' deep connection to Bollywood melodies. After a series of competitive rounds, one team emerged victorious, taking home the title of Sur Sangram Champions. The event was a delightful experience for both participants and the audience, leaving everyone humming to classic tunes long after the competition ended.
