SESSION ON NATIONAL EDUCATION POLICY AND INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM

ICFAI Law School, ICFAI University Jaipur, successfully organized a special session on the National Education Policy (NEP) and Indian Knowledge System for the newly enrolled law students on 19 August 2025 in Room No. 001 as a part of their orientation program. The Guest Speaker for the session was Dr. Mukesh Kalla, Associate Professor, icfaiTech, The ICFAI University, Jaipur.

The event commenced with a warm welcome and the felicitation of the esteemed speaker by Dr. Pratima Soni, Associate Dean, ICFAI Law School, who presented a sapling to the speaker, Dr. Kalla, as a token of respect and appreciation.

During his lecture, Dr. Kalla elaborated on the National Education Policy and its transformative aspects, with a special focus on the concepts of Academic Bank of Credits (ABC ID) and APAAR ID. He explained the key differences between both IDs, their distinct roles in the educational framework, and highlighted the importance of the ABC ID in students' academic journeys. Furthermore, he provided practical guidance on how students can create their ABC IDs to ensure smooth academic mobility and recognition of credits.

Dr. Kalla also emphasized the significance of the National Education Policy in reshaping higher education and aligning it with global standards while nurturing indigenous knowledge. He highlighted the history and richness of the Indian Knowledge System, underlining its continued relevance in today's educational and policy landscape.

The session was interactive and insightful, offering the students a clear understanding of how the NEP aims to strengthen the higher education system while preserving and promoting the Indian Knowledge System.

During the valedictory part of the session, Dr. Harish Kumar Verma – Dean ICFAI Law School and Director – IQAC graced the event with his valuable presence. He presented the memento of appreciation to Dr. Kalla on behalf of the ICFAI Law School.

The session concluded with Mr. Hitesh Manglani, Assistant Professor and faculty coordinator, Centre for Public Law and Policy, conveying the gratitude towards the guest speaker and Dean – ICFAI Law School for making this session – a successful event.

The event was a great success and proved to be enriching for both students and faculty members, fulfilling the Centre's objective of encouraging meaningful discourse on contemporary issues of public policy and education.
