

Report on Orientation Programme (Deeksharambh) – Last Day

On the concluding day of the Orientation Program for the 1st-year students of ICFAI Law School, ICFAI University Jaipur, an engaging and insightful session was conducted on Startups and Business Ideas.

Dr. Vinay Khandelwal, Assistant Professor at ICFAI Business School and Director of IIEC (Innovation and Entrepreneurship Cell), ICFAI Jaipur, delivered an interactive and motivating talk on the importance of startups, innovation, and entrepreneurial thinking. He not only shared valuable insights but also engaged students in a discussion, asking them to share their perspectives on start-ups. Joining him was Dr. Tanmay Agarwal, Assistant Professor at ICFAI Law School, who encouraged students to come forward and present their own startup ideas, fostering creativity and confidence among the new batch.

This session was successfully organized by Mr. Ashish Acharya, Assistant Professor at ICFAI Law School, along with Mr. Vijit Singh, Assistant Professor at ICFAI Law School.
